Graphics around the home

If you take a look around your home, you will find many examples of graphics being used. Most of these graphics will have been created using specialist software such as Photoshop or Photoshop Elements.

Find at least five different examples of the use of graphics in your home and write them down in the table below.

Use of graphic	Description of graphic
Magazine cover	An image of a model has been used on the cover. The background has been removed and you can see the cover background behind her. The colour of her hair has been changed to pink.
